

The image shows the front cover of an old book. The cover is dark, possibly black or dark brown, with a fine, woven texture. There are blind-stamped decorative elements: two large, rounded arches at the top and two smaller, similar arches below them. A horizontal band runs across the middle of the cover, containing the word "ROSARIAN" in a large, white, serif font. The cover shows signs of age and wear, with some scuffing and discoloration, particularly along the edges and within the stamped areas.

A yearbook is a memory book, a setting down in print and picture of the history of the current year. When this is successfully done, the events are forever fresh and new, the people pictured forever young, forever beautiful. In the yearbook, Time stands still: There is only Now--and the promise of things to come. We invite you to follow us on our pathway through Gehlen High School.

The Rosarian

Pope Paul VI—Ambassador for Peace

Pope Paul VI is the first pope in history to come to America. He brought faith close to forty-six million Americans.

He toured New York with genuine delight. Later he was driven through Harlem, to St. Patrick's Cathedral, and then on to the meeting with President Johnson, and finally to the assembly of the United Nations.

After completing his well-filled schedule, Pope Paul returned to Kennedy airport. But as he boarded his aircraft to leave, it was to the whole nation he spoke, "God bless America, God bless you all!"

Gehlen Personnel

Mr. Jack Pehler, our faithful maintenance Man! Whatever would we do without his great ability to help us in ALL our many predicaments and troubled situations around school. THANKS for everything!

Miss Betty Kennaley is in the office at all times. Always ready to be of service. A better typist is hard to find and better friend is even more rare to acquire.

Mrs. Leviller, Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Utecht, Mrs. Cheboski, and Mrs. Carel are pictured here just before they are about to set out for their daily routine of meal planning for the benefit of hungry Gehlenites.

As no two students are alike, so too, their interests are varied and cover vast areas of expression. Activities and service are the means by which students at Gehlen show forth the various talents.

Activities

Just before the coronation of duke and queen, all the girls take a minute out for a possible "queenly" smile.

From this group the duke will be chosen!! Just a few more seconds and the truth will be out. They are: Dick Van Goor, Mark Sitzmann, Joe Overman, Bill Groetken, and Jim Dirksen.

Queen Barbara and Duke Bill smilingly approve of Gehlen's homecoming activities.

Paula Halter, Pam Sitzmann, Bill Groetken (duke), Barb Wolcott (queen), Jane Sitzmann, Ann Bohlke, and crown bearers--Bobby Wolcott and Mary Sue Kellan.

The Mountie Gets His Man

"Maude" Brauch catches a quick glance at "Gehlen Doright" (Lou Walter) as he leaps on his trusty horse (Terry Reuter and Gary Langel) on his way to save the fair maiden.

Denny Harms finds himself "stretched" out on the railroad ties as the villain (Loren Gotto) is prepared to meet the fierce "Gehlen Doright".

Homecoming Parade

Each year our parade seems to get bigger and better. At the left you see the Gehlen royalty as it is being taken through the main street in LeMars, Central Avenue. From the friendly expressions of the seniors one can tell how interesting the onlookers must have been.

Here we get a glimpse of our junior varsity cheerleaders Ann Meis, Julie Kilpatrick, Mary Jane Schiefen and Kathy Livermore. The junior varsity coach, Mr. Kelly, very graciously drives the convertible.

Our 1965 homecoming skit joins the parade in the familiar jeep seen often around Gehlen. Loren Gotto and Wayne Schipper believe in getting all views first-hand.

Barb Robinette, drum majorette, leads twirlers, band and drill team in Gehlen's parade. Twirlers were a new edition to the marching band this year.

Gehlen Parade Moves Forward

Striking a cadence, the band prepares to set out on the long parade route.

A bit shy our homecoming Queen Barb Wolcott with Duke Bill Groetken, prepares to leave the gym to mount the waiting float for the tour of LeMars in Gehlen's Homecoming Parade.

A formal portrait of the royalty makes a final impression of the day. They are seated: Ann Bohlke, Robert Wolcott, Mary Sue Kellan, Barb Wolcott, and Paula Halter. STANDING are Dick Van Goor, Jane Sitzmann, Mark Sitzmann, Bill Groetken, Joe Overman, Pam Sitzmann, and Jim Dirksen.

The smiling faces of the drill team members insures everyone that this is an exciting and memorable day.

Varsity cheerleaders, Bev Robinette and Joleen McCarthy are ready to lead the Jay to victory. Little mascot is Jaci Tighe.

Queen Joel Reigns

Our 1966 Mission Queen, Miss Joel Dreckman, was elected by the members of the senior class to reign over the evening's festivities. The dance was sponsored by the seniors as a post-Lenten activity.

National Honor Society

In the administrative department of the N.H.S. are: treasurer, Jane Sitzmann; secretary, Janet Hoss; vice-president, Ann Vander Meer; and president, Vicky Walsh.

Being selected for membership in the N.H.S. should be considered a great honor. Members are chosen on the basis of four qualifications--scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

The induction ceremonies took on a new light this year. An evening program included an explanation of the society's purpose by the president. Guest speakers were Fathers White and Fangman. A lunch prepared by the senior members followed the recognition of all honor roll students.

Brauch, C. Carel, J. Harms, D. Roeder, J. Mura.

Here comes the Drill Team! as they execute an intricate routine for the fans during the half-time ceremonies of our last home game.

The girls are all smiles as they pause for applause during another of their fine performances.

We Go Where the Team Goes

The winning one-act play was the selection of the sophomores, "Pink and Patches." Players for this delightful mountain drama are left to right: Theresa Wurth, Paula Puetz, Bev Robinette, and Merlin Schipper. Congratulations!

The seniors this year have chosen Robert R. Brome's play entitled "Parole". The cast shown at the right are seated: Jane Sitzmann, Margie Wanderscheid, Jeanne Gengler, Janet Hoss; standing: Joe Overman, Gary Langel and Lou Walter. This cast won second place and took part in the State one-act play contest.

"A Marriage Proposal" was offered by the junior class. The Russian father (front), Mike Kelley, projects his influence over the couple involved, Dorothy Vander Meer and Pete Reuter. Adjustments were made and happiness was the outcome.

Speech Contestants

Linda Kass, Janet Hoss, Mary Hall, Christine Langel, Janet Ruden, and Mary Rose Ortmann received I's in the CYO District speech contest. Jane Sitzmann, not pictured, also had a superior rating. Congratulations, girls, on work well done!

Pictured at the right are the girls who tried their abilities at the State speech contest. Jane and Mary Rose were given superior ratings while Sandra and Mary Jane were rated excellent.

Each year the Gehlen students are encouraged to participate in CYO and State contests. The contests are conducted in the areas of speech, essays, poetry, music and sports. We are proud to picture the Gehlen winners for 1966 on this page.

School Publications

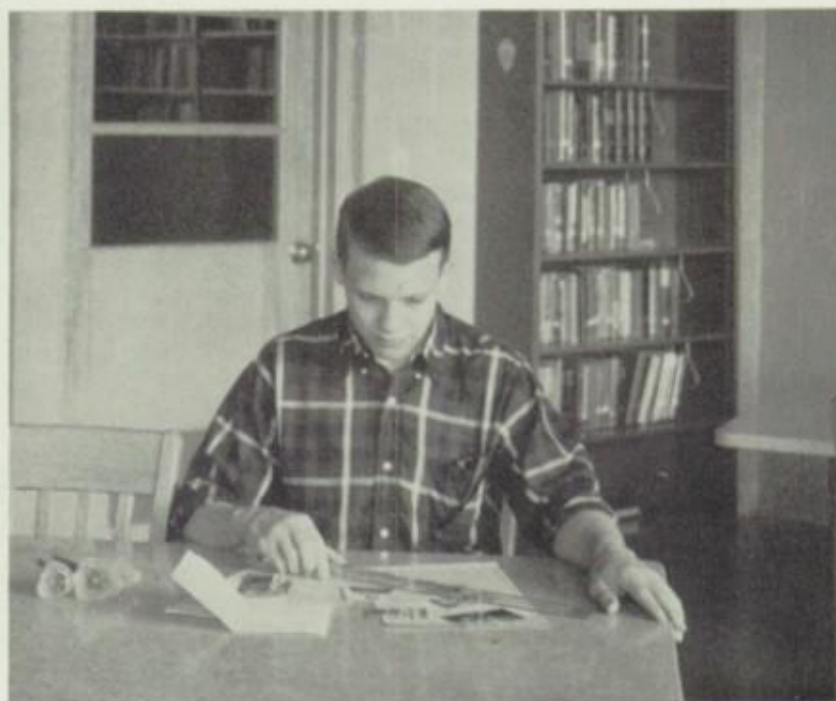

As moderator for both publications, the Gehlen-Aire and Rosarian, Sister M. Alphonsine, S.C.C., has exhibited generous amounts of time, patience, and understanding. Always with a big smile and open heart, Sister has helped nurture and train the talents of many a prospective journalist. The combined staff wishes to express its "Thank You" to Sister Alphonsine.

Barb Wolcott, editor, is shown reviewing a past issue of the Rosarian. Saturday afternoons were usually spent on the yearbook activities.

Seeming to enjoy performing the various tasks leading to the completion of the yearbook are, L.-R.; Vicky Walsh, Ann Vander Meer, Jane Sitzmann, and Mary Meis. These girls have given generously of their time and talents in making layouts, writing copy, and numerous other duties.

Rick Mueller has inaugurated the new position of sports' editor for the '66 Rosarian. His versatility has made him a conscientious reporter in all fields of sports.

Juniors Present

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held in the K.C. Hall on May 18, 1966. It was here that the class wills and prophecies were read, and a short address was given by Father Mason.

Melody and Harmony Provide

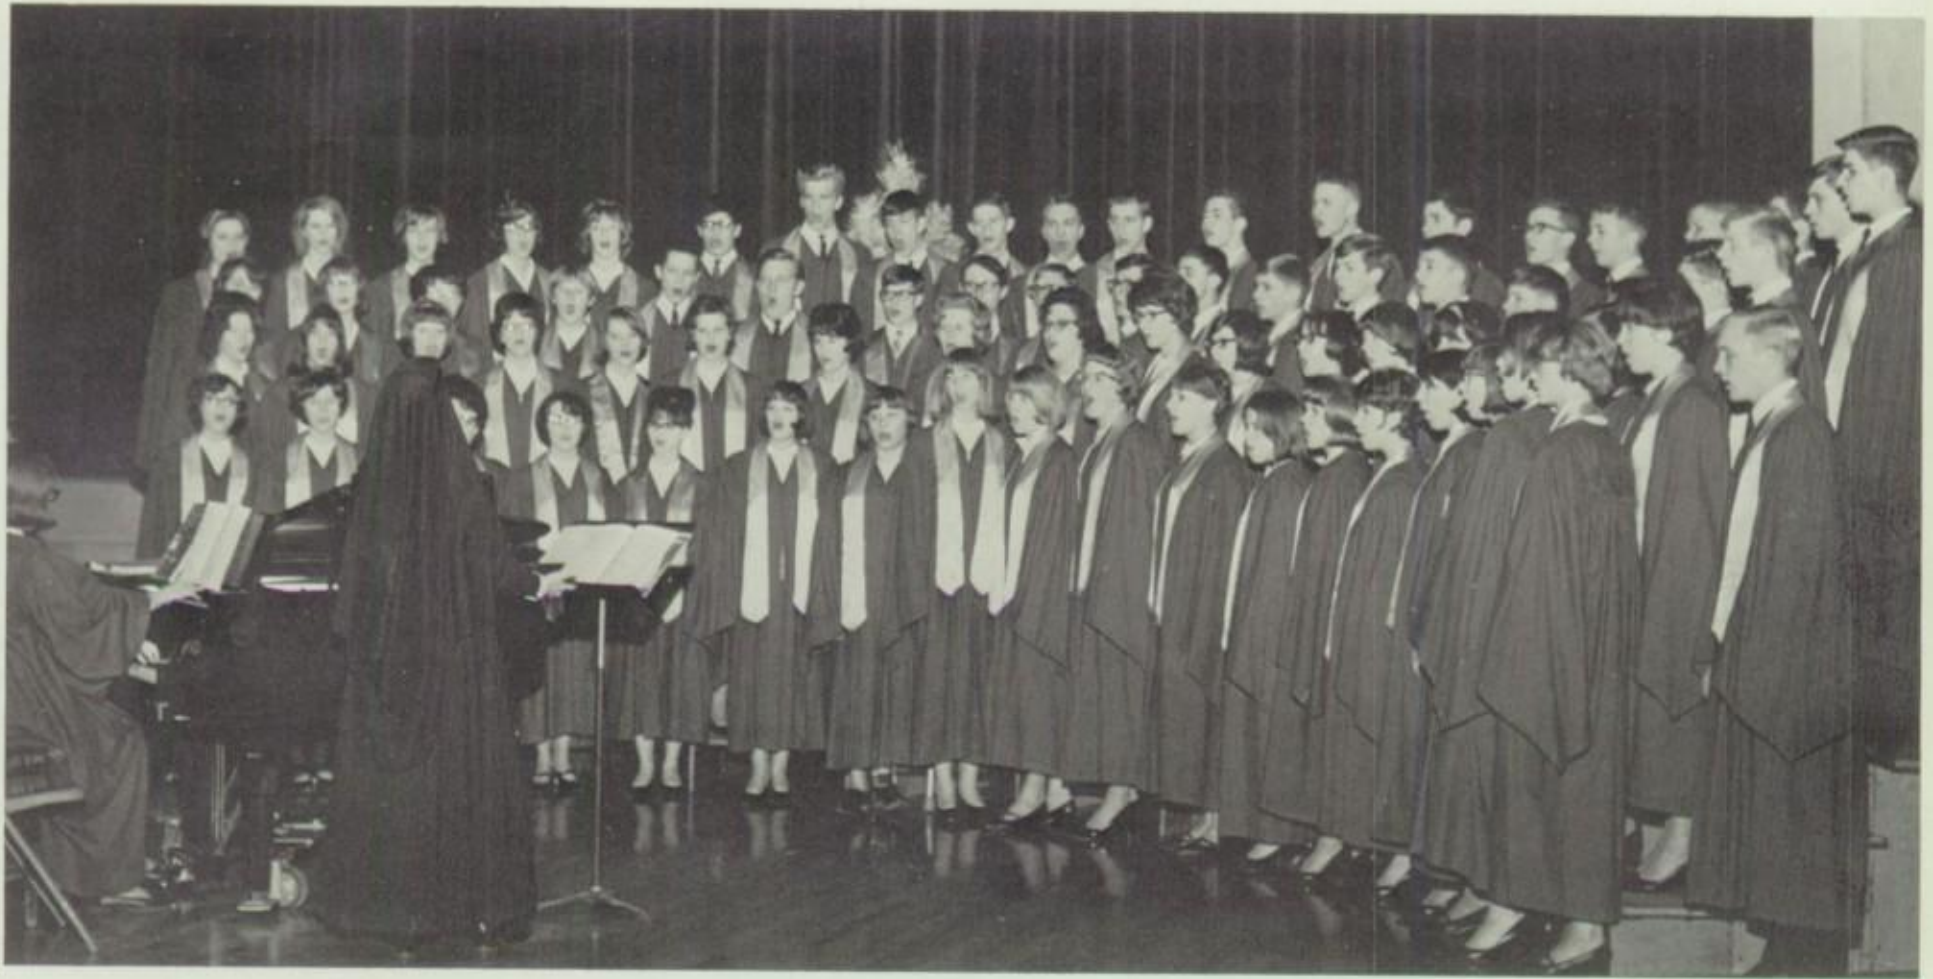

Gehlen's marching and concert bands have taken on a new look this year under the direction of Mr. Michael Brainard. A graduate of Morningside College, Mr. Brainard has disciplined and guided his musicians to a season of superb music appreciation. A highlight of his tactics was the now traditional marching of the band and drill team to the football field to perform the pre-game and half time routines.

Musical Entertainment at Gehlen

The Gehlen mixed chorus under the direction of Sister St. James and accompanied by Barbara Foxen, performed very well at our Christmas concert. A Ceremony of Carols, O Holy Night, and our regular familiar Christmas Carols with the audience and band joining in afforded the audience a very enjoyable evening.

At our annual Christmas concert we were entertained by the delightful singing of our newly organized freshman chorus under the direction of Sister St. James. They were accompanied by Barbara Puetz.

Gehlen freshmen, as all freshmen, require a period of orientation before proper adjustment can be made. We feel our freshmen have come a long way since that first week of school when all rooms seemed alike and all courses most confusing. At the completion of this year, we find the class of '69 well organized and satisfactorily orientated.

What can be more unpredictable in the life of a teenager than his sophomore year in high school? Gehlen sophomores are truly experiencing the truth of this statement. We have a fine group of students here, and they are working hard both scholastically and in extra-curriculum activities. In just a short time we will find them becoming known as the upper classmen at Gehlen.

Sophomores have quite a varied program here at Gehlen, yet they have been keeping up with the pace very well. Religion, geometry, English, Latin and Spanish are a few of the subjects they may take. Latin and Spanish have always been pursued with interest in both the first and second years of these languages.

Representing the views of the class of '67 at the various student-faculty meetings are Jim Orban, vice-president; Mike Kelley, treasurer; Fred Puetz, president; and Virginia Nemmers, secretary.

Time, a little experience, and stacks of books have changed the too certain sophomores into responsible citizens--although unwilling to succumb to the formulas of either chemistry or patterned living--and capable of cooperation and school spirit.

Graduates

The Graduation Mass, celebrated by Father Fangman with a sermon given by Father White, was held on May 20, 1966, in St. Joseph's Church. The graduates were all present in caps and gowns.

Graduation Mass and May Crowning

A beautiful and gracious May Queen, Janet Hoss, approaches the altar of Our Lady to crown her as the special protector and patron of the graduating class.

"We crown you as our Queen of May" . . . Janet places the wreath of flowers on Our Lady. Helen Ruden and Jean Gengler were chosen as Janet's attendants in the ceremony.

Senior Classes

The seniors studied various advanced courses as they prepared for later life. Among them are physics, bookkeeping, transcription, and trigonometry.

Physics students found this lab period a highlight of the course--this on the properties of waves.

Lou Walter and Norm Cockrell studied the heat loss in the change of state of water in this experiment.

At left the second period book-keeping class seems engrossed in the complexities of a class assignment. Many students will make practical use of this knowledge in their careers.

Seniors at

On these two pages we get a glimpse of what this year's seniors were "really like" and how we all came to know them. They are candidly pictured as they participate in GHS activities for the last time.
